Importance: High

Laura -

Kevin, Cliff and I met to discuss this problem. We had the identical issue at the outset of the last contract. We worked this out then and it was agreed that we could use the format that we recently also submitted to you, for the following very important reason.

If we use the form that you propose, there is no breakdown between Admin and Services. If you just go through and try to figure which could be Admin and which could be Services, we would be instantly breaching the contract as the Admin Cost Ratio would look like it's 27.61%, even though that doesn't reflect reality!

If the form you propose is the only one that can be used, we would need to have the ability to have one set titled, "DIRECT EXPENSES - ADMIN" and one set titled, "DIRECT EXPENSES - SERVICES". Is that possible?

Thank you!
Tom
